DECISION ANALYSIS

Rakesh K. Sarin,
University of California, Los Angeles, Editor-in-Chief

Decision Analysis is a peer-reviewed international journal dedicated to advancing the theory, application, and teaching of all aspects of decision analysis. The primary focus of the journal is to develop and study operational decision-making methods, drawing on all aspects of decision theory, decision analysis, and behavioral decision theory with the ultimate objective of providing practical guidance for decision makers.

Appropriate topics include:

- The discussion of new or existing procedures, processes, or algorithms for implementing decision analysis,"
- Cognitive, psychological, organizational, economic, policy, or social issues in applying decision analysis,"
- Innovative uses of information technology to perform decision analysis,
- Issues in applying decision analysis to real-world situations,
- Other topics that further the theory and practice of decision analysis.
